

Mellon's inaugural flag-day

■ THE Niall Mellon Township Trust will have its inaugural flag-day, called 'Hard Hat Day — Homes for Children' on May 8. "The recession might have dampened our incomes but it is not stopping the generosity of the Irish people," said Niall Mellon, Founder of the Niall Mellon Township Trust. "Over 2,000 Irish people have signed up to work as volunteers for our charity to help make a success of our inaugural national flag day," he said.

The charity is actively seeking Volunteers for their next Building Blitz in November.
