

A TOWN OUT OF AFRICA...

AN IRISH team stunned residents of Manchester by building a makeshift African township in the city.

Niall Mellon Township Trust volunteers including beauties Anne Scanlon and Louise Keegan have erected a string of shacks across the city to highlight the urgent need for housing in South Africa.

The stunt is part of a drive by the Niall Mellon trust to recruit 70 English volunteers to go on one of the charity's building blitzes.
