Helping the homeless

THIS Saturday 750 Irish volunteers will leave Ireland for the ninth Niall Mellon Township Trust Building blitz, aiming to build 140 homes by the end of the week.

Over the past eight years 6,500 Irish volunteers have been involved, with each one having to raise €5,000.

By the end of 2010, 15,000 homes will have been built for 80,000 people.
